

Architectural-Engineering Corporation Delinquent/Reinstatement Application Instructions

The legislature has enacted laws which govern all firms. In accordance with those laws, the LSBAE has adopted rules which regulate the registration of such firms. All firms practicing architecture in Louisiana are required to register with the LSBAE and receive a Certificate of Authority within thirty days following registration with the Secretary of State.

To register as an Architectural-Engineering Corporation, your firm must include one or more Louisiana licensed architect(s) and one or more Louisiana licensed engineer(s) in order to meet the definition of an Architectural-Engineering Corporation within the meaning of La. R. S. 12:1171. To register as an A-E Corporation, such firm must be lawfully incorporated, and must apply with LSBAE and with the Louisiana Professional Engineering and Land Surveying Board (LAPELS), designating therein a supervising Louisiana registered architect and a supervising Louisiana registered engineer. For more information, see La. R.S. 12:1173.

Please make sure we have an email contact for your firm.
